MANCHESTER NEWS.

POSITION TO ESTABLISH A SPIKE MILL ACROSS THE RIVER.

The City Council grants the franchises asked—Steel Destroyed by Fire—Personals and Briefs.

A special meeting of the Manchester City Council was held last night at 8 o'clock. Present: Messrs. J. H. Perdue (President), H. C. Boutte, William Welsh, W. E. Westmoreland, John O'Brien, C. A. Jones, A. C. Jones, James T. Bailey, H. A. Faulconer, John T. Hart, and W. L. E. Root, Harris, George, William L. Copland (by Attorney).

President Perdue said, In explaining why the meeting was called, that he had been approached by gentlemen interested in the Spike Mill. He wished to establish a bridge for the transportation of horses and cattle across the river on the site of the old bridge, corner First and Decatur streets, which property belongs to the Richmond and Virginia Railroad Company and the propose to lease it for the purpose.

In order that they may have sufficient time to consider the matter, the first meeting of the Stockholders will be held on November 1st, to now open as a street. They are to remove the trestle, which is to be replaced by a new one, and the corn-mill, which will have to be moved to give room for the new establishment.

COUNCIL AGREES.

An application for information concerning the proposed bridge, the following, which was made without opposition, was granted:

October 1st, That first street from Stockton Decatur as now shown on the map be and the land transferred to the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company or its successors with the understanding and upon condition that the same be opened to the public as a street.

Mr. John S. Harwood, who has been delayed by sickness for sometime, was able to be present yesterday for the first time.

Mr. J. M. Macomber, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, is making a close personal canvass in Accomack county, his headquarters being at the home of James E. Heath, Assistant Postmaster, and Charles E. Cross, sharing them with friend-enthusiasts and endorsements and other claims in connection with the defunct State National Bank. There was no investigation. Both stamps and Cross were bound over November in the merely nominal sum of $500.

The Democrats of the Eastern Shore of Virginia are making a vigorous tour in every part of the peninsula. There was a large meeting at Cape Charles City Saturday evening, when a speaker was raised to speak.

All the priors have made their escape from the jail at Trenton Montague county, by cutting through the walls of the building.

There are charges of gross carelessness against the sheriff and his deputies for this escape, and they will probably be indicted.

The Western North Carolina Baptist Convention in session at Chelmsford, Brunswick County, at great length and with much difficulty established a new name as an organ of the western Baptists, but has finally decided to establish it.
